Business Insights

- Customer Base: 794 total customers with 4,923 orders placed, showing strong repeat engagement.
- Revenue Scale: Total sales reached ₹2.26M, indicating a healthy top-line for the business.
- Order Value: Average order value is ₹230.76, which can serve as a baseline for upsell/cross-sell targets.
- Monthly Trend: Sales fluctuate month-to-month with visible peaks, pointing to seasonal demand patterns.
- Regional Split: Revenue contribution varies across regions. Some regions drive significantly higher sales than others.
- Product Performance: A small set of products/sub-categories generates disproportionately high sales vs. the rest.
- Underperformers: Certain products and sub-categories contribute minimal revenue and may need marketing or inventory review.
- Customer Distribution: Sales are not evenly spread across all customers, suggesting opportunities for segmentation-based targeting.

Business Recommendations

1. Focus marketing efforts on the highest-performing regions to maximize revenue.
2. Promote low-selling products through discounts or bundled offers.
3. Ensure adequate inventory for top-selling products to avoid stock shortages.
4. Launch seasonal campaigns during months when sales are typically lower.
5. Introduce customer loyalty programs to increase repeat purchases.
6. Monitor product performance regularly and discontinue or improve consistently underperforming products.
